The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Alexander Barr, dean of the cathedral, assisted by Rev. Leonard Randolph Masson, father of the groom. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception at the home of the bride.

The bridesmaids will be Misses Nora Leary, Jessie Scott Denham, of Savannah, Ga.; Mary King Nash, of Portsmouth; Elizabeth Barton, of Kansas City; Madeline Draper, of Wilmington, Del.; and Mrs. Reuben Satterthwaite, of Wilmington, Del.

Delaware family and has recently made his home in the West.

Bride's Luncheon.

Miss Nora Leary was hostess at a very attractive bride's luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Caroline Shields and her bridesmaids. The rooms were elegantly arranged in pink and white, and luncheon was served at the little tables. Place cards were hand-painted cards of lilies and orange blossoms.

Miss Evelyn Gordon was also hostess at a tea yesterday afternoon complimentary to Miss Shields and her bridesmaids. The rooms were decorated in pink and white flowers.

Mrs. I. Newton Vaughan entertained the bride party after the rehearsal last evening in her parlors, at the Raleigh. Decorations were in quantities of pink roses and mignonette, with great branches of white flowers.

Miss Henderson's Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Pocahontas Rust Henderson, daughter of William Rust Henderson, to John Ambler Masson, of New York, which takes place this evening at 6 o'clock at Christ Church Cathedral, New Orleans, will be a very brilliant event, and the round of beautiful entertainments given for the bride party has been much commented upon in that city of handsome entertainments. It will be a lily of the valley wedding, and the church of the beautiful church will be flanked with a profusion of those flowers, with a background of palms, and Easter lilies will be used on the altar. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Alexander Barr, dean of the cathedral, assisted by Rev. Leonard Randolph Masson, father of the groom. The bride will enter the church to "Tannhauser's March," and "O, Thou Sublime Evening Star" will be played during the ceremony.

Rev. Oswald Mason, of this city, will attend the bride as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Misses Laura Hayward, Evelyn Dreulich, Dorothy Thomson and Rebecca McCutcheon. They will all wear gowns of pale green satin, with an overdress of green tulle, and the deep V-neck will be trimmed with soft lace. They will wear green chignon hats, trimmed in lilies of the valley, and will carry clusters of lilies. All of the frocks will shade from very pale to a darker green. The groom, Mr. John Ambler Masson, will be the groom's best man, and the groomsmen will include Dick Leverich, of New Orleans; Robert Randolph, of Riverside, Ill.; Canning Toy, of Chicago, and Henry Collins, of New Orleans. The ushers will be Henry George McCall, of Jacksonville, Fla.; LeBlanc and Henry Leverich—all of New Orleans.

Her veil of illusion will be caught with a coronet of natural orange blossoms and myrtle, and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony there will be an informal reception at the bride's home, to which the members of the bride party and the younger set have been invited. Were Raw All Over and the Humor was Spreading to Body and Limbs—Professional Treatment did No Good—Daughter had Eczema, Too.

ECZEMA ON HANDS FOR TEN YEARS

CUTICURA A SUCCESS IN BOTH THESE CASES

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. At first it would break out only in winter. Then it finally came to stay. I had three good doctors to do all they could but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading to my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle of Cuticura Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. I had a good appetite and was fleshier than I ever was. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would honestly advise them to foot with nothing else but to get Cuticura and get well. My hands, cured by the use of Cuticura, have never given me the least bit of trouble up to now. I cannot recommend Cuticura highly enough, it has done me and my family so much good. My daughter's hands this summer became perfectly raw with eczema. She could get nothing to do with them and until she tried Cuticura. She used two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and one box of Cuticura Ointment and in two weeks they were entirely cured. I have used Cuticura for other members of my family and it always proved successful. I recommend it to any one with eczema. After once using it you will never use anything else. M. E. Fallo, Speers Ferry, Va., Oct. 19, 1909."

UNIFY INSURANCE LAWS
Efforts by Commissioner Butten and Associates May Be Successful.

Commissioner of Insurance Joseph Butten returned yesterday morning from Chicago, where he spent a week attending meetings of committees of the National Association of State Insurance Commissioners. Colonel Butten is a member of the executive committee, the committee on fraternal insurance and the committee on fire insurance rates.

Agreement was reached on a uniform law governing fraternal insurance societies, which will be recommended to the States for adoption. It is regarded as highly desirable that the requirements of the several States in this direction should be uniform.

The committee on fire insurance rates has under consideration some method of finding out the reason for the difference in commissions paid to agents. In the South, where the Southeastern Tariff Association, or its successor, rules, the rates for insurance are higher than in other sections while the commissions paid to agents are only 15 per cent. In other sections they run as high as 50 per cent. of the premium.

Judge Ingram to Hold Court.
Governor Mann yesterday designated Judge John H. Ingram, of the Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond, to sit to-morrow in the Corporation Court of the city of Newport News, to try certain cases for Judge T. J. Barham.
